

The dog who saved the day.

Once upon a time there was a girl with brown hair called Jo. She was just starting to pack up her clothes to go to Australia. She was bringing her dog with her. The next morning she put her suitcase in the car with her dog then she left for Australia.

She was on the way to the Airport. When she was driving. Jo's dog needed to go to the toilet so she stopped on an old road. Jo saw a white van when the dog was out of the car. Suddenly the dog kept running down the road. Jo chased the dog in the car after 2km the dog went to an abandoned house. Jo got out of her car and heard screaming. She looked in the window and saw people who were kidnapped. She was about to go in and save them. But then she saw the van coming in the gate way!!!!

She got her dog and ran into the forest. The people in the van saw them. The people chased Jo and the dog and noticed they had guns!!! The people were very close to Jo and the dog but they kept hiding. Suddenly Jo sneezed and the people noticed her she tried to go but her foot was caught on a branch. The dog pulled her out luckily. They ran back to the house got the children out of the house and Jo and the dog luckily got away and brought the children where they belong.
